Chili, Charity and Fun

14th Annual MRE

Second Ave, Eastport, Annapolis, MD

Chili Cook Offs

MRE Tug O' War

TICC

The Mason Dixon Pod is a loose collection of slightly off-centered Chili Heads headquartered in Maryland with members from Pennsylvania, Virginia, DC, Texas, Connecticut and other states where we have chili friends. 2010 chili year was our banner year by raising over $6,000 for charities. We are looking to you to help us raise even more in 2011.

Maritime Republic of Eastport 2011 Tug of War XIV

We (Chili Cooks) are to supply the Eastport tuggers with all the necessary fuel for them to persevere in this the 14th Annual Slaughter Across the Water.

Check out the activities from last year ... and expect an even better time this year.

This is a great CCO. Lots of energy, crowds and good times. There will be bands, food vendors, cocktail, beer & wine truck, kids zone, crazy people ...

CASI

The Chili Appreciation Society International, Inc.'s mission is to promote chili and raise money for charity. CASI is involved in over 500 chili cook offs per year raising over $1,000,000 annually for local charities. In addition to raising funds for charitable organizations in the United States and participating foreign countries, CASI seeks to educate the public about the historic and cultural significance of chili - an indigenous American tradition.

MRE comments from the 2010 Tug

NAPtown may have walked away with bragging rights 4 heats to 3 last year but we all know who really won 35 kegs to 5. Now that's TUGFEST! With your help we can reclaim the title.

Fun with a purpose, we like it this way!
